January 4, 2026 - The Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord by Deacon Vern

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Today we celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord — a feast whose very name means manifestation. It is the day we recall how Jesus, the newborn King, was revealed not only to Israel but to the whole world, symbolized by the visit of the Magi from the East.

The Gospel tells us that these wise men followed a star, a light in the darkness, which led them to Bethlehem. They came from far away, crossing deserts and enduring hardships, because they were searching for something — or rather, Someone. Their journey reminds us that faith is often a pilgrimage: it requires patience, perseverance, and a willingness to leave behind what is comfortable in order to encounter God.

The Magi brought gifts — gold, frankincense, and myrrh — each carrying deep meaning:

- Gold for a King, acknowledging Christ's sovereignty.
- Frankincense for God, recognizing His divinity.
- Myrrh for one who would suffer and die, pointing to the mystery of the Cross.

But perhaps the greatest gift they offered was not in their hands, but in their hearts: their worship. They knelt before the Child and adored

Him. This is the essence of the Epiphany — to recognize Jesus as Lord and to give Him our lives.

In our own time, God still places stars in our path — moments, people, and events that guide us toward Him. The question is: are we watching the skies of our lives? Are we willing to follow where He leads, even if it takes us beyond our comfort zones?

Like the Magi, we are called to return by another way — not just geographically, but spiritually. An encounter with Christ changes our direction. It transforms our priorities, our relationships, and our mission in the world.

So today, let us bring our own gifts to the Lord:

- The gold of our love and fidelity.
- The frankincense of our prayer and praise.
- The myrrh of our sacrifices and sufferings, united to His.

May we, like the Magi, be seekers of the Light, bearers of the Light, and witnesses to the Light — until the day when we see Him face to face.

Amen.

" Their journey reminds us that faith is often a pilgrimage: it requires patience, perservance, and a willingness to leave behind what is comfortable in order to encounter God. "

– Deacon Vern

Our Pastor, Father George

Magi from the East offered the gifts - of gold, which pointed at Jesus as the king, the gift of frankincense pointing at the Divinity of the Infant Jesus and the gift of myrrh for anointing which pointed at the Lord's offering of the cross. They reveal Jesus as King, God and the Anointed. The whole world recognizes the Son of God and Jesus reveals himself to all the nations. Nothing equals: Royalty, Divinity and Self-offering of Christ and all people own him love and worship.

Circus Mass - Our Bishop Frank J. Dewane will celebrate the 10:30am Mass on Sunday, January 11 for the intention of the Circus community. Come join our parish, which is the national Shrine for the Circus, for this special prayer for the artists involved in Circus. May God bless them!

Mass for the Deceased Showfolk's - There will be a special Mass in our church on Friday, January 9 at 8:30am celebrated by Fr. Frank Cancro and with all who want to pray for our Deceased brothers and sisters from the Circus community.

Next Sunday, January 11, 2026, is the Baptism of the Lord.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

His Holiness Pope Leo XIV

Kindergarten Christmas

A Note From The Principal...

To Our St. Martha Parish Family,

As we begin this new year and celebrate the season of Epiphany, our St. Martha School community continues to shine Christ's light through service, creativity, and joy. Our 8th graders lived out their faith during a meaningful Retreat Day, sharing hope through acts of service that supported families locally and around the world. Our kindergarten students enjoyed a joyful Christmas celebration with songs and cookie decorating alongside their families, and Mrs. Paben's 8th grade technology students designed and 3D-printed their own Christmas ornaments. May we enter this new year grounded in faith, answering God's call to serve others with generosity and joy.

God Bless,
Mari Jo Hanson, Principal

8th Tech Ornaments

Mrs. Paben's 8th Grade Tech Students used Tinkercad to design their own 3D Christmas Ornaments and then added their finishing design touches once they were printed.

But what about our duty as Christians to help the poor and needy?

Aren't we supposed to help? YES, absolutely! But please let your donation truly do the good you intend. The church collects money to support our local homeless charities. The Homeless Outreach donation box is located near the main doors of the church. The monies collected go to:

Caritas Food Pantry: A parish ministry at St. Martha. The food pantry is open Monday-Friday and serves hundreds of families every week.

Resurrection House: Provides many free services to the homeless including breakfast, lunch, bathrooms, showers, toiletries, laundry service, clothing, chapel, barber, health screening, medical doctor, dentist, vaccines, and legal services.

Family Promise: An organization addressing the gap in local services for pregnant mothers experiencing homelessness.
