January 18, 2026 - Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

by Father Gennadi

Today's Gospel asks us to think about John the Baptist's words: Behold, the Lamb of God. These words tell us who Jesus is, but they also invite us to believe and follow Him with joy. Let us listen with open hearts and live this message every day. This Sunday's Gospel shows John the Baptist's strong faith in Jesus. When John says, Behold, the Lamb of God, he points others to the Savior. His words lead two of his own disciples—John, who later wrote the Gospel, and Andrew, Simon Peter's brother—to leave him and follow Jesus.

This moment teaches us that real faith is never hidden. Today, many think faith is private, something to keep inside. We often hear, I believe, but I don't practice. This shows a misunderstanding of true Christian faith.

When someone meets Christ through faith, their heart is filled with joy and peace—and a desire to share that gift. True faith overflows; it cannot stay locked inside. The happiness of faith moves us to invite others to experience the same light.

Saint Augustine understood this well. After his conversion, he wanted to share the beauty he had found: Oh, if only they could see that inner, eternal light! Because I had experienced it a little, it hurt me that I could not show it to others... I did not know how to help those deaf corpses, to whose number I had once belonged. (Confessions IX, 4)

One of the simplest and strongest ways to show our faith is by going to Sunday Mass. Even walking to church shows what we believe. Praying together, singing, and receiving Holy Communion are clear signs of faith. This weekly practice gives us strength to live our faith every day, even in places where books or priests cannot reach.

Like John the Baptist, we are called to be guides—pointing to the only true path to happiness. Jesus says, You are the light of the world. Faith is not just for our own hearts; it is meant to shine for others. That light shines brightly when we share our faith openly and joyfully.

Saint John Paul II also strongly emphasized that Jesus demanded of His disciples that they be transparent signs of His saving presence. This sign should be visible in their words, in their specific lifestyle, in the testimony of their hearts, in the joy and happiness that would indicate that Christ the Lord is their foundation. True faith, therefore, is that which can cry out with a devoted heart: for I know Him in Whom I have believed (2 Timothy 1:12).

I remember a story my grandmother told me when I was a child. My grandmother told me the story of a man who was captured by the devil. The man's hands were bound, and he couldn't free himself. To ward off the devil, he wanted to make the sign of the cross, but his hands were tied. Do you know what that man did? my grandmother asked. He made the sign of the cross in his thoughts, and the devil fled. That was one of the first expressions of faith I ever heard. I was perhaps 10 years old at the time. This emotional story remains in my memory to this day. From childhood, I realized a fundamental truth:

Our Pastor, Father George

Notes From Father George:

Week of prayer for Christian Unity -

Jesus himself teaches us to pray: ...that they may be one, as we are one - I living in them, you living in me - that their unity may be complete. So shall the world know that you sent me, and that you loved them as you loved me.

(John 17: 22b23)

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day (January 19) Public Holiday - we will have 7:30am and 8:30am Masses. As we remember

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. (born on January 15, 1929 - assassinated on April 4, 1968), we join in national prayers for the end of racial discrimination, for justice and peace.

Parish Mission - (Sunday, February 1 through Wednesday, February 4) - We will have our Annual Parish Mission two weeks before Lent which starts on Ash Wednesday and would be a good start of our Lenten preparations for Easter 2026. Come join the Mission sessions led by Fr. Peter Hill who was with us last year and did a great job.

Next Sunday, January 25, 2026, is the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

Circus Mass

Our Bishop Frank J. Dewane celebrated the Circus Mass on Sunday, January 11, for the intention of the Circus community. Our parish is the national Shrine for the Circus, for this special prayer for the artists involved in the Circus. May God bless them!

✓ Father Gennadi's Sermon continued from previous column in every difficult situation, there is a way out if I trust in God.

Lord Jesus, You are the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Fill our hearts with joy and courage to share it. Help us be light for the world, guiding others to Your truth and love. May our words and actions always point to You, the source of eternal happiness.

This week we had Tony Belizzi from Hope For Children NYC do two powerful retreats for our students. The retreat theme was A walk with Jesus that encouraged our students to seek Christ, listen to His voice, and begin—or deepen—a personal relationship with Him.

Give the Gift of Education!

You will find scholarship envelopes in the pews.

Today's young people are bombarded by influences of the secular world.
The challenges facing parents today are immense, and Catholic education is more important now than ever.

Catholic schools continue to be a pillar of strength for young people through daily exposure to the Catholic faith, academic excellence, and great role models.
Catholic education helps parents develop young people prepared to overcome the obstacles they face in our messy world.

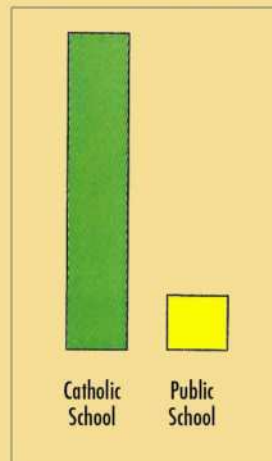

It's a common response of former students who claim that Catholic education was second only to parental influence in development of faith and moral values.

Please know that no gift is too small.
Any contribution you make, combined with those of other parishioners, becomes a substantial amount and assures the ability of St. Martha to provide Catholic education to our young people.
Your support can truly make a difference. Give the gift of education!

Five reasons to support Catholic education for the children of St. Martha Parish.

1. Strong faith and moral foundations.
2. Academic excellence.
3. Great role models.
4. Sacramental preparation and daily exposure to the Catholic faith.
5. Instilling the value of service to others.

Mass Attendance

This chart illustrates the impact of Catholic education has in faith development.

Millennials that attended Catholic school are almost eight times more likely to attend Mass weekly than those that attended public school.

A Note From The Principal...

To Our St. Martha Parish Family,

As we begin the third quarter of the school year, our campus is once again filled with learning, growth, and joyful moments. We are grateful for the generosity of our families, who came together to support local organizations through a recent donation drive, living out our call to serve others. Students are also enjoying hands-on learning experiences, including a special garden tasting for our second graders, who sampled fresh produce that they planted alongside Chef Caldwell. It has been a wonderful start to the new quarter, as we continue to grow in knowledge, gratitude, and faith together.

2nd Garden Taste Test

2nd Grade Gardeners had the opportunity to savor the fruits of their labor during a special tasting with Chef Caldwell!

Fun Fact about the ART in St MARTHA Catholic Church

Have you ever wondered about the colorful stained glass window in the back dedicated to Ringling Brothers?

This large stained glass window commemorates St Martha's deep connection to the circus community, performers, and the Ringling Brothers. It honors the Ringling Brothers' contributions, which helped fund the church during the Great Depression, making it the USA Circus Church.

Created in 1941, it was designed by artist K.J. Mueller Studio (Zephyrhills, Florida).

The stained glass windows throughout the Church are a significant feature known for their fine detail, painted glass, and historical importance. They are part of our unique architectural landmark. In 1994, these windows were restored and protected with exterior glass, enhancing the serene, Gothic-Romanesque-inspired interior of our beloved church. They are extremely detailed, with each piece of glass painted and fixed, as noted in the 1994 State of Florida Historical Stained Glass Survey.
