February 1, 2026 - Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

by Deacon Pat

When we pray the Our Father, we intone the words, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. By our baptisms, each of us is called to bring about God's will. How? Through faith!

To live from it through faith is easier said than done according to Bishop Barron. He teaches that we are culturally conditioned to pursue wealth, power, and prestige as substitutes for God. He acknowledges that these pursuits will never provide true spiritual happiness or living a good life!

Thankfully, Jesus shows us the way to living a good life in The Beatitudes.

Quoting our Catechism: The Beatitudes reveal the goal of human existence, the ultimate end of human acts: God calls us to his own beatitude. The vocation is addressed to everyone personally, but also to the Church as a whole, the new people made up of those who have accepted the promise and live from it in faith.

The Catechism continues: The Beatitudes depict the countenance of Jesus Christ and portray his charity. They express the vocation of the faithful associated with the glory of his Passion and Resurrection; they shed light on the actions and attitudes characteristic of the Christian life; they are paradoxical promises that sustain hope in the midst of tribulations; they proclaim the blessings and rewards already secured, however dimly, for Christ's disciples; they have begun in the lives of the Virgin Mary and all the saints.

In this reflection, I'll touch on several Beatitudes.

From the first Beatitude, God builds his kingdom from those who are poor in spirit – those who recognize their spiritual poverty and total dependence on God. We move away from worrying about wealth, power, and prestige. We humble ourselves. Sometimes, life humbles us. It is in those times that through our humbleness God opens the door to the kingdom.

"Meekness, in this sense, is the power to be gentle, patient, and kind. It is the disposition of inner peace."

- Deacon Pat

Our Pastor, Father George

Notes From Father George:

Annual Parish Mission - Together with Fr. Peter, I invite everyone in the parish, and anyone who would like to join the Parish Mission to come to our church. Fr. Peter Hill will lead us through the morning sessions at 9:00am and evening sessions at 6:00pm on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Blessing of candles on the Feast of the Presentation - Monday, February 2nd, is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple and traditionally, at each Mass on this day, there is a blessing of candles. You are welcome to bring your own candles to the church and they will be blessed.

St. Blaise's Blessing of throats - There will be a special blessing of throats at each Mass on Tuesday, February 3rd, which is the Memorial of St. Blaise.

No 4pm Vigil Mass in the Hall on Saturday February 7th - The 4pm Vigil Mass this week on Saturday, February 7th, in the Hall, is canceled. We invite parishioners who usually attend this Mass to come to 4pm Vigil Mass or 5:30pm Vigil Mass in the church.

Next Sunday, February 8, 2026, is the 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family, Father George

The Beatitude, that I have had problems with is Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth. This just did not make sense to me. Thankfully, it does not mean being a doormat. Here is what I have learned: Meekness in this sense is the power to be gentle, patient, and kind. It is the disposition of inner peace. The inherit the earth part refers to inheriting a true, lasting fulfillment and peace, a deeper enjoyment of life, and God's promised kingdom.

Looking at Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied is having an intense, desperate longing for justice. It means having a right relationship with God as well as with neighbor. It means actively seeking to live according to God's standards, striving for justice, fairness, and peace. It is brought about by surrendering to God's rule.

Consider becoming more active in Parish life by volunteering in Caritas, Respect Life, Ministering in the Hospital and in Care Facilities, Catholic Days in the Capitol, Casa Santa Marta Board, Rosary Makers, etc.

I'll end with a prayer. Heavenly Father, I want to be closer to you! What is your will for me to do for you today?

Fun Fact about the ART in St MARTHA Catholic Church

Have you seen the tapestry to the left of the altar?

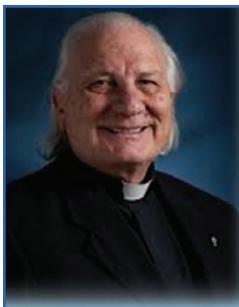

As you face the altar, have a look at the tapestry on the left near the Tabernacle, which was painted by Father Anthony Pastucci in 1988 while serving at St Martha. This beautiful piece of art depicts the faithfulness of the church in celebrating the Eucharist. The uniqueness is that it takes us from the Last Supper to present day, quite a unique expression.

This beautiful artwork was cleaned and removed and remains a celebrated piece of art representing St Martha Catholic Church's uniqueness in the world.

St Martha Catholic Church is widely known and respected for being a parish known for its art and architecture, with a tradition of incorporating works of art by local artists connected to our community but also world renowned.

Catholic Schools Week had been filled with meaningful learning and joyful moments across campus. Our fifth graders enjoyed an engaging, hands-on science experience that brought learning to life, while our eighth graders spent time at Cardinal Mooney, gaining insight into the next exciting chapter of their academic journey. Even our youngest learners joined in the fun, exploring shapes, colors, and creativity in the PK4 classrooms. These experiences reflect the vibrant, faith-filled learning that makes our school community so special and remind us of the many ways our students grow each day.

God Bless,
