25th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Mt 20: 1-16a

by Deacon Bob

Often in life we lose perspective. In today's Gospel, The Landowner (who is analogous to the Father), invites laborers early to His vineyard to tend to it. At the end of the day, they will receive their final reward. Throughout the day, He invites more to tend to His vineyard. At the end of the day, all get the same final reward. The ones who were called early are somewhat jealous, that they toiled longer and all received the same final reward. The ones called early lost their perspective.

The exact same thing happened to me this past weekend. As many of you know, I am a huge Notre Dame football fan and am a season ticket holder. As such, I go to every home game. This past weekend, for some reason, I lost track of when I was flying out. So, my goal was to go to the Basilica for the 10am Mass on Sunday. So, I did not

*“Working in His earthly vineyards
is not a chore,
but a gift.”*

- Deacon Bob

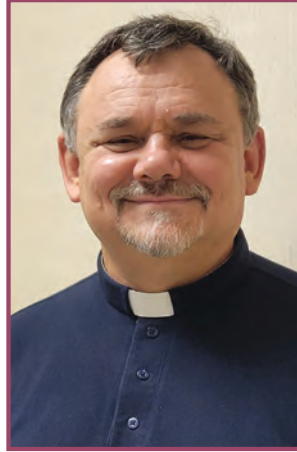

go to Mass after the game as I would for an early flight. Late that Saturday night, I mentioned to a friend after 10:30am Mass I would stop his house (as he has a house in South Bend for games). He was on the same flight as me. He looked quizzically at me. Puzzled he said, Our flight is at 9am, what are you thinking? So now my mind scrambled to when I could go to Mass. The best option now was to go to Epiphany Cathedral for their 5:30am Mass which would make for a very busy and long day.

As I flew home and drove from the airport, I kept thinking I had to go to Mass. I got home around 4:30am, and was thinking I had to go to Mass. I was very tired and the devil started to creep into my brain. Telling me loudly it is an obligation...you HAVE to go! I got into my car reluctantly wanting to just go to sleep. I started to think about the Eucharist as I pulled out of the driveway. Then I started to pray the Our Father. Give us our daily bread: when I say those words, I ask God to allow His Holy Spirit which is our true daily sustenance into my heart. With that the Holy Spirit pounced into my thoughts! My thoughts turned. I did not have to go to Mass... I GET TO GO TO MASS! I get to receive the Eucharist. I get to have the greatest honor a person can have! I get to receive Christ!

Like the labors called to the vineyard early, for a little while I lost perspective. For those who have accepted Jesus' call and have found how much our God loves us earlier in our lives: we are not doing without the pleasures of life, it is rather we have found the true joys of life earlier. We GET to serve God and live by God's Word! The joys that we get from serving God far outweigh anything else.

Our Pastor, Father George

Notes From Father George:

9am Sunday Mass in the hall – We resume this Sunday (September 20) our family/children Mass in the parish hall, which will continue through the school year. School children with parents and families are specially invited for this Mass as it accompanies their religious education, catechism classes and sacramental preparations. The OCIA Catechumens and candidates are welcome at this Mass before their 10:15am meetings.

Feast of St. Matthew, Apostle and Evangelist (September 21) – According to the bishop Papias, the Church's canonical text of Matthew draws upon the Aramaic traditions associated with his name. Composed around 85AD, the gospel is generally arranged in an alternating pattern of narrative and discourse. Intended for a largely Jewish-Christian audience, it seeks to portray Christianity as consistent with the Jewish tradition and a continuation of it. Tradition holds that Matthew preached in Judea and in Ethiopia where he was martyred; symbolized by the winged human being mentioned in the Roman Canon; patron of accountants and customs officers.

Next Sunday, September 27, 2026, is the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

It really does! Serving God and working for God is not drudgery, it is joy. Do we not feel our best when we help others and give our love to others? It never has been about what we get or what happens to us. Our true fulfillment in our earthly lives are when we do undo others as we would have done unto us and love God with our whole hearts and minds. The earlier we get to the vineyard, the sooner we GET to have the joy in our earthly life that God wants us to have.

Our heavenly reward is promised to everyone who has been heartfully sorry for their sins and loves God with their whole hearts. But working in His earthly vineyards is not a chore but a true gift. We GET to do that, and when we are at Mass instead of the beach, or at a game, we GET to receive the greatest earthly gift: His Body and Blood. WE get to have that physical relationship with our Lord! It is all in our perspective.

Information for Families with Students in Catholic School

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that parents receive the responsibility of evangelizing their children and calls them the first heralds of the faith. The family is also called domestic church – the church of the home. It is so important for parents to be strong role models as active Catholics, becoming the primary catechists in the faith development of their children.

In keeping with this important role of parents there will be two requirements to qualify for the Practicing Catholic Tuition Discount when submitting the Parish Affiliation Form.

The first requirement is 50% attendance at Sunday Mass for the year. To confirm your attendance, please place your offertory envelope in the basket during the offertory collection (No contribution is needed inside the envelope).

The second requirement is participation in at least one parish ministry.

Please see the list (right) of qualifying ministries for parents, children, and families. ➔

Volunteers Needed - The Diocese Jail Ministry needs volunteers to bring communion to the inmates at the Sarasota County jail. Men and women volunteers visit the jail on Main St. in Sarasota on Sunday afternoons. We can schedule volunteers roughly one Sunday per month. This is an incredibly rewarding ministry that is greatly appreciated by the inmates. To discuss please call John Ledek, at 801.493.5328 or email johnledek@gmail.com. He is a parishioner at St. Thomas More and manages the volunteers at the jail. Thank you!

Virtues, Explained!

Jesus told the rich young man that in order to be saved, he must sell all he owned and give the proceeds to the poor. This is the virtue of liberality - giving of one's resources freely and in abundance.

However, the virtue of liberality should be practiced by each person according to his state in life. The rich young man could afford to lose everything - and indeed, was too attached to his wealth. We are all called to give selflessly of what we have, but "we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us," writes St. Paul (Romans 12:6).

Some of us have too much time and have grown idle. Some of us have too much talent and use it only to benefit ourselves. Some of us have too much wealth, and hoard it jealously. Whatever we have too much of will keep us from God. So let's practice liberality, and be generous.

Prayer for an OCIA Class

You never cease calling each of us to You.
