27th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Matthew 21:33-43

by Father Gennadi

Today Isaiah and Jesus both speak about a vineyard. In the Bible, the vineyard is God's people. God prepares the soil, plants the vines, protects them, and waits for good fruit. Yet Isaiah says that the vineyard produces wild grapes. In the Gospel, the tenants refuse to give the owner his share. They beat his servants and kill his son. Both readings ask the same serious question: after all that God has given us, what fruit does He find in our lives?

This question is for us today. It is not enough to say, I belong to the Church, or I have always been Catholic. The real question is not only whether we belong to God, but whether our choices show justice, charity, and fidelity. Does our faith change the way we speak, work, forgive, use money, care for our families, and treat people who need help?

“Grace is not given so that we can stay as we are. Grace is given to heal and to transform us.”

- Father Gennadi

This shows how often God reaches out to us. He speaks through Scripture, the Church, the people who love us, and the voice of conscience. But God's patience is not endless permission to remain unchanged. Grace is not given so that we can stay as we are. Grace is given to heal us and transform us.

For this reason, stewardship is not optional. Everything we have is entrusted to us: our time, gifts, family, work, faith, possessions, and opportunities to do good. We are not the owners of the vineyard; we are its caretakers. Stewardship is our practical way of saying thank you for the grace we have received. We do not earn God's love by good works. Rather, because God has loved us, His love should begin to bear fruit through us.

What does that fruit look like? It is justice when we are honest and fair, even when dishonesty would benefit us. It is charity when we feed the hungry, forgive an offense, or give our time to someone in need. It is fidelity when we keep our promises, remain faithful in prayer, protect our families, and follow Christ when doing so is difficult. God's work becomes visible through our decisions, relationships, and responsibility for others.

Today we should ask ourselves: What part of God's vineyard has

Our Pastor, Father George

Notes From Father George:

Come and pray the Rosary for family, the Church, the nation and the world!

– We will have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and will pray the Rosary in our church on Wednesday, October 7, starting at 9am ending at 8pm. The Rosary will be prayed at every top hour with the last one at 7pm. This year's theme of the Eucharistic Rosary Congress is My spirit rejoices in God my Savior.

October Devotion – The Catholic tradition of praying the Rosary during the month of October gives us an opportunity to pray for peace in Ukraine, peace between the USA and Iran, peace in the Holy Land, Sudan and other places of conflicts in the world. Mary, who asked the children of Fatima to pray for the conversion of sinners and for peace, requests it from us.

Jubilee Prayer to St. Francis – Saint Francis, our brother, you who eight hundred years ago went to meet Sister Death as a man at peace, intercede for us with the Lord. In the Crucifix of San Damiano, you recognized true peace; teach us to seek Him, the source of all reconciliation that breaks down every wall. You who, unarmed, crossed the lines of war and misunderstanding, give us the courage to build bridges where the world erects borders. In this time afflicted by conflict and division, intercede so that we may become peacemakers: unarmed and disarming witnesses to the peace that comes from Christ. Amen. (Pope Leo XIV)

Mass Intention booking – We need to limit the number of Mass Intention bookings in our Parish Mass Book. In the case of Mass Intentions for the same person or for the same cause, we will accept and agree to say no more than 12 Masses per year and no more than one Mass per month.

Next Sunday, October 11, 2026, is the 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

been placed in my care? Perhaps it is my marriage, my children, my parish, my workplace, a friendship, or a person who depends on me. What fruit is God waiting to receive there? Is there a wrong I must correct, a person I must forgive, a duty I have neglected, or a gift I have been afraid to use?

Jesus, the Son rejected by the tenants, became the cornerstone. If we build on Him, our lives will bear good fruit. If we refuse Him, the kingdom will be entrusted to others who are willing to live its demands. Let us not be Christians in name only. Let us receive God's grace and allow it to change us. Then the vineyard entrusted to us will flourish, and God's kingdom will become visible in the world.

HELP SAVE LIVES IN SARASOTA

September 23-November 1
40 DAYS FOR LIFE

October is Respect Life month.

The 40-day campaign runs from September 23 through November 1.

The heart of the campaign is the daily commitment to prayer and peaceful witness. For those people who can come and pray on the sidewalks in front of Planned Parenthood, the remaining dates for St. Martha are Saturday, October 10th and Tuesday, October 13, 9am-12pm. You don't have to stay the entire time. Whatever time you can spend is appreciated. If you are not able to pray with us at the abortion facility, there are other ways to participate; praying at home, offering a daily rosary for the protection of life, attending Eucharistic Adoration. For those who can be with us on the sidewalks, it would be wonderful, since we have been told by abortion-minded mothers that seeing people praying for them and their unborn babies is what changed their minds and caused them to choose life.

September 23-November 1

Live The Liturgy - Inspiration of the Week

Some build their lives on a foundation of wealth, some on a foundation of power. What do we choose for our cornerstone?

What supports the weight of our souls? For the Christian life, there is only one foundation strong enough to hold. Choose wisely.

Virtues, Explained!

Magnanimity, writes St. Thomas Aquinas, describes the stretching forth of the mind to great things, (Sum. II-II, 129, Art. 1). This virtue protects souls from the temptation to do honorable things for intentions that fall short of honorability. Magnanimity shares much with the virtue of humility, but unlike humility, it specifically seeks what is great - but never the distinction of being called great. A magnanimous person's focus is solely on accomplishing as much good as possible, as effectively as possible.

When Joseph learned that Mary, his betrothed, was with child through the Holy Spirit, he had a chance to distinguish himself as a virtuous man. In calling for Mary's punishment, he could have condemned immorality loudly and publicly, while distancing himself from what appeared to be sin.

Instead, he did the opposite. He did what he knew to be right. He exhibited magnanimity, and the world was never the same.

Information for Families with Students in Catholic School

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that parents receive the responsibility of evangelizing their children and calls them the first heralds of the faith. The family is also called domestic church – the church of the home. It is so important for parents to be strong role models as active Catholics, becoming the primary catechists in the faith development of their children.

In keeping with this important role of parents, there will be two requirements to qualify for the Practicing Catholic Tuition Discount when submitting the Parish Affiliation Form.

The first requirement is 50% attendance at Sunday Mass for the year. To confirm your attendance, please place your offertory envelope in the basket during the offertory collection (No contribution is needed inside the envelope).

The second requirement is participation in at least one parish ministry.

Please see the list (right) of qualifying ministries for parents, children, and families.

Ministries for Children

Altar Server at a Saturday Vigil Mass or Sunday Mass
Frequency at least once a month.

Ministries for Families

Greeters & Offertory Gift Bearers

Before Mass, greet and welcome parishioners/visitors at the main entrance of the church, and during Mass bring offertory gifts to the altar. Frequency once a month.

Family Ministry

Parents and children serve coffee and donuts to parishioners on Sunday morning for a ninety-minute shift between 7am & 1pm. Frequency once a month.

A Note From The Principal...

To Our St. Martha Parish Family,
We were blessed to welcome Bishop Emilio to St. Martha Catholic School last week. Bishop Emilio celebrated Mass with our students and families, spent time visiting with parents, and then stopped by classrooms to meet and talk with our students. It was a wonderful visit and a special opportunity for our students to spend time with our new Bishop.

As a Franciscan, Bishop Emilio's visit was a beautiful reminder of the call to bring Christ's peace to others: Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God. (Matthew 5:9)

We are grateful he spent the day with our St. Martha and St Mary communities and look forward to welcoming him back!

Peace and Goodness, Mrs. Hanson Principal

Mass with Bishop Emilio - It was a truly wonderful day with Bishop Emilio who spent so much time at St. Martha, from celebrating Mass, to visiting with parents, meeting with 8th graders, visiting classrooms and students, and chatting with staff!
