November 8, 2026
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
by Deacon Vern

This Sunday's Gospel (Matthew 25:1–13) offers us the parable of the ten virgins, five wise and five foolish, waiting for the bridegroom. The wise bring extra oil for their lamps; the foolish do not. When the bridegroom arrives unexpectedly, only those prepared enter the wedding feast, while the others are left outside.

At its heart, this parable is a gentle yet urgent reminder: faith is not merely about believing, but about living ready. The oil can be understood as the daily acts of love, prayer, forgiveness, and service the quiet, consistent ways we keep our hearts burning for Christ. Preparation is not fear-driven; it's love-driven. We stay awake not because we dread His coming, but because we long for it, because our hearts yearn for the joy of His presence.

> "The Kingdom of God is both here and yet to come, and the joy of the wedding feast awaits those who live each day with hearts prepared."
> - Deacon Vern

The foolish virgins' mistake wasn't simply forgetting oil, it was assuming they could borrow readiness at the last moment. Our relationship with God is deeply personal; no one can hand us their faith or holiness. It grows in us through daily choices, often unnoticed, like filling a lamp drop by drop. Every moment of prayer, every act of kindness, every choice to forgive, every time we resist temptation these are drops of oil that keep our lamps lit.

The parable also reminds us that the timing of the bridegroom's arrival is unknown. Life can lull us into complacency, making us think there will always be more time to turn back to God, to reconcile, to deepen our prayer life. But Jesus calls us to live each day as if it could be the day of His return, not with anxiety, but with joyful anticipation. The Kingdom of God is both here and yet to come, and the joy of the wedding feast awaits those who live each day with hearts prepared.

This week, the Gospel invites us to reflect deeply: Is my lamp burning brightly? Am I cultivating the oil of grace through prayer, sacraments, and acts of mercy? Am I living in such a way that, if Christ came today, I would welcome Him with joy?

May we be among the wise, not because we fear missing out, but because we love the Bridegroom and desire to meet Him with lamps shining. Let us ask the Holy Spirit to help us keep our hearts awake, our faith alive, and our love steadfast so that when the bridegroom comes, we m ay enter into the fullness of His joy.

Our Pastor, Father George

Notes From Father George:

November Remembrance of the Dead – The book in front of the altar in our church, which will stay there until the end of November, symbolizes the promise of eternal life to all whose names are in the Book of the Living, which Jesus speaks about in the Gospel. Let's pray for our Dead and ask God: Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace!

Catholic Mass on Veterans Day – Join us for a special Mass on Veterans Day! Come to worship and also to honor USA Veterans on Wednesday, November 11, 2026, at the Sarasota National Cemetery, 9810 State Road 72, Sarasota. Opening ceremonies begin at 2:45pm.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

Prayer

Lord, thank you for loving me and forgiving me.

Sharing the Gospel

You do not know the day or hour when God will come for you. Be prepared with the flashlight of your soul. Love God with your whole mind, heart, and soul. Love your neighbor as yourself. When you follow these two commandments, it lights up your soul. When you forget to obey them, your light grows dim. Put a flashlight and extra batteries by your bed to show God that you are ready for him.

Read the Gospel and color the image.

Mission for the Week
